

No end to civic woes at pedestrianised Chandni Chowk stretch; L-G, AAP govt spar over its state

On Tuesday, a war of words broke out between L-G VK Saxena and the AAP-Delhi government over the stretch.

NEW DELHI : Over the past several months, the poor state of the much-touted pedestrianised 1.2-km-long stretch at Chandni Chowk has been a cause of inconvenience to shoppers and traders alike. Earlier this month, the High Court had also asked the Delhi government to ensure redevelopment work carried out in the market is continued and maintained.

On Tuesday, a war of words broke out between L-G VK Saxena and the AAP-Delhi government over the stretch.

After visiting the area, Saxena, in a series of posts on X, posted pictures and wrote: "Decrepit basic civic services, lacking sanitation, deplorable upkeep due to neglect over years and absence of essential coordination between departments/ agencies working in silos, has defeated the very pur-

The L-G shared photos of the pedestrian stretch in Chandni Chowk and pointed to 'lack of sanitation and deplorable upkeep'. Government officials said they have no power to take action since the GNCTD Act was passed. Source: X pose of pedestrianisation of the main thoroughfare."

In another post, he said, "This apathy has converted this proud heritage of the National Capital into a disorganised nightmare for traffic, visitors, traders & devotees."

Saxena said he has directed officials of the Public Works Department (PWD) to take up deep cleaning and repair of roads, footpaths and bollards.

Meanwhile, the Delhi government blamed the Centre saying that since the GNCTD Act was passed, it has no power to act against any officer.

"The Shahjahanabad Redevelopment Corporation has developed and handed over all assets to the PWD for upkeep, maintenance and sanitation. Therefore, the PWD secretary is responsible for any lapses... After the GNCTD (Amendment) Act, the Delhi government has no power to take action against any officer. All power to take action is with the L-G," said government official. It also said that if the L-G is unhappy with the work of the PWD, its secretary should be suspended with immediate effect.

Meanwhile, sources in PWD said that the contractors who look after the maintenance and cleanliness of the area have not paid due to fund crunch. "Contracts are yet to be renewed for the area," said a source.

The L-G also directed police to address the issue of vagabonds and drug addicts in the area. "NSCB Marg between Chandni Chowk and Lal Qila has a serious problem of traffic congestion and traffic police were directed to resolve this problem," he said. "It was also directed to find ways for the utilisation of Sisganj parking to address the issues facing devotees and pilgrims and the parking problem in the area," the L-G added.

EC notice to Delhi BJP for 'derogatory' posts on Kejriwal

NEW DELHI : The Election Commission Tuesday issued a show-cause notice to Delhi Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) president Virendra Sachdeva for "derogatory" posts about Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal on the party's official social media handles.

The EC said it was of the view that the posts on the Delhi BJP Facebook and X handles were prima facie in violation of the Model Code of Conduct, which prohibits parties and candidates from making unverified allegations against others. The EC asked Sachdeva to explain the statements by 8 pm on Thursday.

The Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) had on November 16 submitted a complaint to the EC about the Delhi BJP's posts that it said were an "ugly attempt to tarnish the image" of Kejriwal. The content in question included a video caricaturing Kejriwal and making allegations of corruption while depicting a day in the life of the AAP national convener.

"The BJP is trying to tarnish the image of our party and Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal by posting ridiculous content on social media. They are trying to do character assassination.

We have appealed to the Election Commission to take action against the BJP." AAP MP Raghav Chadha told the media after filing the complaint. "There must be some decorum even in politics. My request to the BJP would be to stop the character assassination of people. If you want to fight Kejriwal, then fight in the election field. We have explained in detail in the complaint," Chadha added.

Earlier, the EC had issued a show-cause notice to Kejriwal on November 14 for alleged derogatory posts on Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the AAP handle. The AAP had posted a similar video caricaturing the Prime Minister and alleging that he worked for businessman Gautam Adani.

WORLD COPD DAY 2023: EMPOWERING EARLY ACTION, THROUGH BETTER DISEASE AWARENESS

India, 2023: India's most recent National Health Policy aims to reduce early deaths from noncommunicable diseases, including chronic respiratory conditions, by 25% by 2025. Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) is a major concern in this context. While the disease is the 2nd leading cause of death and disability-adjusted life years (DALYs) in India, a recent study revealed that a staggering 54% of COPD-diagnosed patients had no knowledge about the disease. This highlights a clear gap in the effective management of COPD, where awareness plays a crucial role in instigating the process of detection, diagnosis, and intervention. Therefore, on this World COPD Day, medical experts across the nation unite under the global theme of, 'Breathing is Life - Act Earlier,' highlighting the pivotal role of heightened disease awareness in improving disease control, quality of life as well as life expectancy for those grappling with this condition.

Highlighting the role of better disease awareness for the early detection and treatment of COPD, Dr. Taresh C. Patel, Chest Physician, Surat said, "In a country with diverse medical practices, awareness plays a crucial role in promoting disease diagnosis and rational treatment. Since COPD is a progressive condition, it is essential to control it before there is a significant decline in lung function as well as worsening of symptoms like breathlessness, cough, sputum production, wheezing, and chest tightness. Infact, with the festive season upon us, the potential exposure to triggers like smoke and airborne pollutants can even result in a flare-up of the disease or a lung attack which can take patients a month or longer to completely recover from." Adding on Dr. Samir P. Gami, Consultant Chest Physician & Intensivist, Surat said, "With nearly two-thirds of cases remaining undiagnosed and only one-fifth receiving rational inhalation treatment, raising awareness can save lives by making sure more people get the care they need. The goal of any COPD management plan is to halt progression and reduce decline, and this hinges on a better understanding of the disease and its treatment. Bronchodilator inhalers are crucial for treating COPD, and programs like pulmonary rehabilitation can greatly enhance quality of life. For certain patient populations, e.g., those who have trouble inhaling quickly, nebulized treatments serve as a viable option, especially with portable devices for home care. This can be particularly effective during acute exacerbations. An umbrella term for a group of chronic inflammatory lung disorders, COPD is characterized by obstructed airflow and damage to the lungs. Risk factors range from, exposure to indoor pollution e.g., Chulha smoke, tobacco smoke, outdoor air pollution, to occupational-related pollutants in industries like agriculture.
